Re: Docket No. 96-115

In the Matter of Implementation of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, Telecommunications Carriers' Use of Customer Proprietary Network Information and Other Customer Information

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On July 8, 2003, Amy Healy of the Yellow Pages Integrated Media Association ("Yellow Pages I.M.A.", formerly the Yellow Pages Publishers Association) and the undersigned met with Marcy Greene, William Kehoe, Ann Stevens and Daniel Shiman of the Wireline Competition Bureau. We discussed outstanding issues in the pending petitions for reconsideration in the above captioned proceeding.

Specifically, we discussed the proposal to force local exchange carriers (LEC) or their directory publishers to act as a clearinghouse for subscriber listing information (SLI) for other carriers, issues relating to unpublished and unlisted subscriber listing information, requests for contracts between a carrier and its affiliated publisher to be made available to independent directory publishers, and the ability to deny SLI to any person whom the LEC believes is not using the information for the purpose of publishing a directory. Yellow Pages I.M.A.'s positions on these issues are set forth in its January 11, 2000 comments in these proceedings. Yellow Pages I.M.A. intends to supplement the record on these issues in the very near future.

Sincerely,

Joel Bernstein
